201. *Basket of Fine Wines

Basket of six bottles of 2008 Brothers Ridge Alexander Valley Cabernet Sauvignon. The 2008 Brothers Ridge is hard to find and a real treat. This single vineyard cabernet consistently has high ratings (2006 and 2007 rated 93 by Wine Enthusiast) and is sure to be a great addition to any wine cellar. In the hills to the east of the small town of Cloverdale, Brothers Ridge spans 141 acres, nearly all planted to cabernet sauvignon, with smaller amounts of merlot and cabernet franc. It's on well-drained loam underlain by sandstone, shale, and ancient greenstone. Its elevations, approaching 1000 feet, and its primarily western aspect perfectly situate the vines to capture the full warmth and light of the afternoon sun, ripening cabernet well into the chocolate and black fruit profile, with exceptional richness.

Retail Value $575

Thanks to: Steve & Monique Russell

202. *Basket of Fine Wines

Three bottles of 2008 Migration Alexander Valley Pinot Noir by Duckhorn, and three bottles of 2008 Brothers Ridge Alexander Valley Cabernet Sauvignon. The 2008 Brothers Ridge is hard to find, and a real treat. This single vineyard cabernet consistently has high ratings and is sure to be a great addition to any wine cellar. The 2008 Migration by Duckhorn Pinot Noir is truly the perfect match for a nicely grilled steak. Regardless if collecting, drinking or a little of both, you cannot go wrong with this collection of wines.

229. *2008 Kosta-Browne Pinot Noir

This 2008 Kosta-Browne Pinot Noir is from the Keefer Ranch Vineyard in Sonoma, Russian River Valley. This rich, full-bodied Pinot received a 95 in Wine Spectator. Kosta-Browne started its supersonic trek to celebrity status in 1997, when pals Dan Kosta and Michael Browne pooled their restaurant tips and purchased a half ton of Pinot Noir grapes, a manual crusher-destemmer and a used barrel. Adding the business- and investment-savvy Chris Costello gave Kosta Browne the requisite resources to expand into the Pinot force they are today. Fruit is sourced from top-notch vineyards in the Russian River, Sonoma Coast, and Santa Lucia Highlands. Their philosophy is to make Pinots that express intense flavor and the "sweet spot" of their respective vineyards.

912. *Bringing Montessori to Your Home

As Montessori families, we've all been told we should have a "prepared environment for the home." But do you really have all of the elements in place for a stress-free morning? Are you still feeling disorganized, unable to get a routine, or falling over toys everywhere? If so, or if you need a refresher, Head of School, Mary Levy, and Director of Education/Upper Elementary guide, Jackie Silveira-Sater will come to your home and help bring order via Dr. Montessori's principles. This goes to the core of "help me do it by myself" in the context of a home truly designed for the whole family. There will be two visits: one for assessment, and one to apply the changes. This is best for families of primary-aged children. Included is the book, "At Home with Montessori," which will be helpful long after Mary and Jackie walk out your door.

1029. Size 29 Women's The Shane Cigarette Style of Genetic Denim Denim Jeans

Size 29 women's The Shane Cigarette Style of Genetic Denim denim jeans. Genetic Denim understands that jeans are as important to our wardrobe as genes are to our makeup. We can't choose our genes but we can choose our jeans, and thanks to founders Scott Sartiano, Ali Fatourech, and Shaun Hurley, the denim choice is looking a lot sweeter. The trio believes that the most crucial part of jeans is the top three inches, and rather than covering up flaws with trick techniques such as whiskering, Genetic Denim concentrates on fit. Because when it comes to style, it's all in your genes.

1117. *Level 1 Avalanche Training Class

Join Slide Snow School instructor and MVM parent Tim Farrar for a Level I Avalanche Safety Course. Tim has taught avalanche education, mountaineering, glacial travel, and outdoor skills since 1992. Slide Snow School teaches the most current American Institute for Avalanche Research and Education's (AIARE) proven, unified curriculum. AIARE provides a unified approach that builds logically on itself from a 1-hour avalanche awareness presentation to a 78-hour Level 3 advanced course.

This Level 1 course is offered February 18, 19 & 20, 2012 from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. at Mount Rose Ski Tahoe. The level 1 is a three day/24 hour introduction to avalanche hazard management. The course is expected to:

- Provide a basic understanding of avalanches
- Describe a framework for decision making and risk management in avalanche terrain
- Focus on identifying the right questions, rather than on providing "answers"
- Give lessons and exercises that are practically oriented, useful, and applicable in the field.

Students can expect to develop a good grounding in how to prepare for and carry out a trip, to understand basic decision making while in the field, and to learn rescue techniques required to find and dig up a buried person (if an avalanche occurs and someone in the party is caught). A final debrief includes a knowledge quiz to test student comprehension and to give feedback to instructors on instructional tools. Students are encouraged and counseled on how to apply the skills learned and told that no course can fully guarantee safety, either during or after course completion. A link is made to a future AIARE Level 2 course. Students must be able to travel in avalanche terrain. There are no other prerequisites.
