

Classroom Art Projects

1300. Diane's Classroom Art Project

"Four Seasons"

The art of Sumi Brush Lettering is beautifully displayed in the student's haiku of the four seasons.

Priceless

Thanks to: Diane's Class

1301. Leslie's Classroom Art Project

"Bugs, Bugs, Bugs"

A four-paneled wall hanging made from wood and hand-tooled aluminum.

Priceless

Thanks to: Leslie's Class

1302. Kate's Classroom Art Project

"Seasonal Transformations"

A four-panel canvas painted and fingerprinted by the students in Kate's classroom. This includes a photo book of the students at work on this masterpiece.

Priceless

Thanks to: Kate's Class

1303. Christina's Classroom Art Project

"Mt. Rose Wildlife"

A mosaic bistro table with seating for two that features the Mt. Rose landscape and other wildlife details depicted in tile.

Priceless

Thanks to: Christina's Class

1304. Adolescent Community Art Project

"For The Birds"

A two-story birdhouse with a roof-terrace and bird feeder has been constructed from durable wood atop a PVC pipe stand. Created with love by the Adolescent Community.

Priceless

Thanks to: Adolescent Class

1305. Michele's Classroom Art Project

"Circle Power"

We say we want a revolution? How about 30 of them? In this handmade quilt, every circle is lovingly chosen, cut, frayed and sewn by each child.

Priceless

Thanks to: Michele's Class

1306. Jackie's Classroom Art Project

"Mandala Madness"

Colorful mandalas made by each of the students adorn this 24"x 24" masterpiece from Upper Elementary 1.

Priceless

Thanks to: Jackie's Class

1307. Rieko's Classroom Art Project

"All You Need Is Love"

Wooly felted garden creatures are lively and colorful in this unique wall hanging. Each child designed, hand-felted and embellished them with button eyes and friendly faces.

Priceless

Thanks to: Rieko's Class